

Ali Webb & Friends

Presenter Copy (Blurbs to Copy/Paste)

For programs, calendars, websites, and press releases
alijazz.com/epk bookings@wildtoneartists.com

Overview

(50 words)

Ali Webb & Friends blend swing, improvisation, and story in an inviting evening of vocal-and-instrumental jazz. With wit, warmth, and candid tales, the trio moves easily from laughter to tenderness through favorite standards and hidden gems that connect with jazz lovers and newcomers alike.

(100 words)

Ali Webb & Friends bring an intimate, feel-good evening of vocal-and-instrumental jazz —favorite standards alongside hidden gems—framed by wit, warmth, and true-to-life stories. With a supple voice and easy, conversational presence, Ali guides the room from laughter to tenderness, while the trio's crisp arrangements and sparkling interplay keep the swing alive. The set flows with clean pacing and memorable melodies, inviting jazz lovers and the jazz-curious alike to lean in, relax, and be carried by the music. It's a night of connection: songs you know, discoveries you'll take home, and moments that land with heart.

Select Quotes

"...hysterical and moving...a very intimate show."

- Cabaret Scenes, New York

"I marveled at her candor....she's different."

- Front Row Center, New York

(continued...)

Be Anything (general show)

(25 words)

Story-driven vocal jazz with wit, warmth, and swing – favorite standards and hidden gems that leave audiences uplifted.

(50 words)

Ali Webb & Friends blend swing, improvisation, and story in an inviting evening of vocal-and-instrumental jazz. With wit, warmth, and candid tales, the trio moves easily from laughter to tenderness through favorite standards and hidden gems that connect with jazz devotees and general audiences alike.

(75–90 words)

Ali Webb & Friends craft an intimate, feel-good night of vocal-and-instrumental jazz – favorite standards and hidden gems – framed by wit, warmth, and candid storytelling. Ali's easy, conversational presence is accentuated by the trio's crisp arrangements and dazzling improvisations, yielding clean pacing, memorable melodies, and a graceful arc from humor to heart. The program scales comfortably for PAC/community series, cabaret/black-box rooms, outdoor evenings, and festival vocal slots—welcoming to jazz aficionados and general audiences alike.

Listen Here – The Music of Dave Frishberg

(25 words)

A warm, witty celebration of beloved jazz composer Dave Frishberg – wry stories, swinging vocals, and a tight trio.

(50 words)

Ali Webb & Friends honor beloved jazz composer-lyricist Dave Frishberg with wry stories, swinging vocals, and a tight trio. The set balances dry humor and poignant lyricism, inviting smiles, laughter, and a touch of nostalgia – connecting with jazz-savvy and jazz-curious audiences alike.

(75–90 words)

Ali Webb & Friends dive into The Dave Frishberg Songbook, celebrating a beloved jazz voice – wry, literate, and unexpectedly tender. Ali's conversational delivery and the trio's crisp swing bring out both the humor and the heart, creating an evening that invites smiles, laughter, and a touch of nostalgia and longing. It lands equally well with jazz devotees and the jazz-curious.